While man has seven ages,
Fair women has but three,
Her real one, what her friends think,
And what she claims to be.

POSITIVELY

Copy for "Changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

The Pianette, the latest arrival, at Burgoyne & Mitchell's.

Mr. Thomas Lyons, one of Lexington's wealthiest citizens, died Sunday, aged 70.

Mr. Millard Myers and Miss Elizabeth Wallingford will wed Thursday at Cynthia's.

An effort is being made to organize a company to build a cannery factory at Louisa.

Mr. L. T. Anderson, Jr., sold a pair of high-bred horses to New York parties yesterday.

The Ladies' Prayermeeting will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. Miss Mary Wood will be the leader.

Only 26 more days to get your tickets on the Diamond Ring. Ticket with every $ worth of goods even, at reduced prices. Tickets given to all who pay their accounts.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shoal of Limestone street were called to Cincinnati yesterday by the death of his sister. Miss Shoal has been a frequent visitor in this city, and by her gentle, winsome ways won many friends here who will regret to learn of her death.

On motion of Mrs. Angeline, widow of G. W. Stiles, deceased, Mr. A. J. Stiles was appointed Administrator of said estate, with A. A. Graver, A. P. Lukins and C. H. Newman surety on bond. Messrs. P. W. Suit, B. W. Wood and J. S. Woodward were appointed appraisers.

Rev. T. S. Buckingham, who for the past six months has been doing a most excellent work in the Master's cause at Burkeville, arrived home Saturday on a short visit to his wife and daughter. The Reverend gentleman will return to his field of labor Friday. He is looking well and his many friends are glad to greet him.

Extra Westbound through freight No. 73 on the Chesapeake and Ohio, known as the merchandise train for Cincinnati, ditched fourteen loaded cars yesterday morning near St. Paul, eight miles below Portsmouth, and tore up the track for a veral hundred yards. A broken rail caused the accident. The trainmen escaped by jumping. Traffic was delayed fully ten hours.

M. J. Bingham, the C. and O.'s efficient detective, arrested two men at Russell Saturday for breaking into and robbing cars at Richmond, Va. On the same day he arrested seven farmers at Huntington, W. Va., for robbing coal cars. They were actually loading off the cars into wagons and hauling it home. Mr. Bingham ought to come to Maysville and put in a little time between the Coal Docks and the West End. He might make a rich haul.

WILLIAM H. CASE.

Mr. H. W. Case died this morning at 3 o'clock at the residence of his sisters, corner Sutton and Front streets, after a sickness of seven days. Some two years ago he was seriously injured while in the employ of the C. and O. and never fully recovered. That, with his ailment, kidney trouble, was the cause of his death.

The deceased was the oldest son of Henry and Eleanor Case, and was born in this city August 17th, 1845. He had been a resident of Maysville all his life.

During the War of 1861-65 he enlisted in the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry. After serving his time he re-enlisted in the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry.

He leaves a daughter, Miss Fannie Case, two sisters, Mrs. Rebecca Hamilton, Miss Harriett Case, and a nephew, Mr. Lud Hamilton of this city, and a brother, Mr. John Case of St. Louis.

He was a member of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R.

The funeral services will be held at the house, conducted by Rev. M. A. Banker. The day and hour will be announced in tomorrow's LEDGER.

WAS BORN HERE

Mrs. John J. Jackson, Burned to Death in Louisville

Mrs. Nancy Burgoyne Jackson, aged 82, was burned to death Saturday morning at her home in Louisville while her husband, John J. Jackson, aged 85, was painfully injured in a brave but futile effort to save her life.

She was walking past the grate when her dress caught fire.

Mrs. Jackson was born in this city April 23rd, 1823, but had lived in Louisville for nearly three decades.

She was a daughter of Otho Burgoyne, a pioneer settler of Ohio and a nephew of General Burgoyne, the British General who surrendered at Saratoga during the Revolution.

Mrs. Jackson was a sister of Mr. O. D. Burgoyne of Hall street, Fifth Ward.

SERIOUS CHARGE

Wm. Neville Said to Have Attempted to Fire the Cotton Mills

William Neville was placed in Jail yesterday by Squire Drexel in default of a $300 bond for his appearance today on a most serious charge—that of arson.

Last Monday week the Maysville Cotton Mills—in which over two hundred men, women and children over 14 years of age are employed—was discovered to be afire in the picker room three separate times.

The manner and frequency of the fires aroused the suspicion of the proprietors that it was the work of an incendiary.

A watch was set to trap him.

Sunday Nevill's was seen to enter the picker room and thrust his hand into a pile of loose cotton.

The matter was reported to Henry Crawford, one of the bosses of the factory, and upon investigation he found a handful of matches deposited in the cotton.

Had the Mill started up Monday morning with the fire brand in the cotton there undoubtedly would have been a conflagration with a probable large loss of life—notwithstanding the Mill is splendidly equipped for fighting fire.

It can hardly be realized that a person would do such an inhuman and horrible act.

Will poor old Kentucky's woes never cease? Jo BLACKBURN is in eruption again and threatens to canvass every county in the state.

HAVING predicted about everything that hasn't happened during the past ten years, Mr. BRYAN is now predicting Democratic success in 1908.

JUDGE JAMES HARGIS, County Judge of Breathitt and member of the Democratic State Central Committee, who was charged $8,000 for his share in the murder of Attorney JAMES B. MARCUM, and has been indicted by a Fayette County Grand Jury for the killing of JAMES CROCKRILL at Jackson, is the gentleman who has given the people of Kentucky to understand that he "will do as he damn pleases." And it seems that he does.

A PROMINENT citizen of Greater New York has given it as his opinion that the utter lack of regard for convenience and beauty manifested in the planning and construction of the Brooklyn terminal of the East River Bridge has cost the municipality of Brooklyn $50,000,000 in loss of real estate values. The estimate may be exaggerated, but there is at least enough truth in it to set people thinking. The popular view of the planning of public works has been that it is all very well to pay some attention to the requirements of beauty when there is plenty of money on hand for the purpose, but that at the best beauty is a luxury that is a heavy drain on the taxpayer.

If Mr. EDWARD M. SHEPARD is right the truth is just the other way around. It is ugliness, and not beauty, that costs money, and for which the taxpayer, directly or indirectly, is obliged to pay enormously.

A little reasoning ought to convince one of the wisdom of Mr. SHEPARD's assertion. The city or town or village where public improvements are planned and carried out with regard to some other considerations than those of bare utilitarianism never lacks for means to make such improvements. As improvements are made, property increases in value, and owners and the community at large are mutually benefited. There is no more practical illustration of the Scriptural declaration that to him that hath shall be given, and that from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

One of the things that the people of our cities need to have impressed upon them is that beauty is an asset and that ugliness is a liability, and that the movement in behalf of municipal improvement that is making such noteworthy headway in various parts of the country has back of it something more than an aesthetic impulse. It is based on a recognition of the fact that the people are entitled to beautiful and wholesome surroundings as a right and not as a privilege, and that no more beneficent investment of public resources can be made than to build a city where beauty shall be the common heritage of all who dwell therein.

It was a great mistake to let the Legislature know that there was plenty of money in the Treasury. This fact should never have been made public.

Have Hens Lay Gold

It is simply wasting an opportunity to fail to feed

Chenoweth's Poultry Powder.

Eggs are high and are going to stay high—are more likely to go higher than lower. Whether your hens lay or not depends on whether you give them egg-making materials.

Chenoweth's Poultry Powder supplies this material and also builds up the vitality of your fowls. It is profitable to feed it all the year around, but especially so right now. Will increase your poultry profits from two to three hundred per cent.

Try it. If not satisfied with results your money will be repaid.

To the Readers of This Valuable Paper and the Public Generally

An era of prosperity is slowly but surely dawning upon this community. The wide awake merchant adapts himself to conditions surrounding him. Better times mean more money; more money means more demand. We have, therefore, purchased the largest and best lines of spring merchandise we ever carried.

While our people demand the best goods, they are of a thrifty and economical turn and like to have 100 cents for every dollar they invest.

We believe we are in position to buy as cheap, if not cheaper, than most merchants, having a resident buyer in one of the largest commercial centers and buying for our several stores.

Among other lines we will show the largest and best selected line of Millinery ever shown in this section.

Our new offerings for this week consist of Silks, new Dress Goods, White Goods, Lace, Embroideries.

Thanking you for past favors, we are yours,

BIG SALE!

I have had a good business during 1904. I want to have a larger one in 1905. I have bought largely for spring and summer, and to make room for this large stock, which will begin to arrive soon,

I Am Going to Convert My Entire Fall and Winter Stock Into Money.

I can use the cash. I will mark all goods in plain figures, lower than the same grade was ever before offered in this or any other city. All purchases subject to comparison and home approval. If you are not satisfied with your purchase I will thank you if you return it and get your money.

Work Done When Promised.

In the Democratic primary held in Hancock, Frederick and Meade counties to nominate a Representative from the Tenth Senatorial District, R. W. Owens of Hancock won over Gus W. Richardson of Meade by a majority of 200 votes. Owens carried Hancock and Break-enridge, while Meade went for Richardson.

UNDER SOUTHERN SKIES.

Our theater-goers are fortunate in having an opportunity of seeing "Under Southern Skies," which will be seen here for the first time on Thursday, February 2d, at the Washington Opera-house. Special scenery, representing the old fashioned stately homes of the Southern aristocracy and the beautiful flower bedecked landscapes of the South are carried by the company and twenty-three people are required for the speaking parts. The plot is very interesting and it is told with so many amusing and entertaining touches that the play never flags or loses its interest. A hallow'en party with a pumpkin dance is one of the attractions of the play. The costumes are pretty and attractive, following the fashions of the period, and many beautiful gowns are worn. "Under Southern Skies" is a play of such marked success and possesses so much refined entertainment and beauty that none of our theater-goers can afford to miss it. Seats on sale at 8 a. m. Wednesday at Ray's.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having used this remedy. For sale by all Druggists.
